The formal appointing of members pending approval at the Health and Human Services and Veteran's Committee is scheduled for April 13, 2023.

Coordinated Services Team (CST) Enrollment Status:

12 children have been discharged. 10 referrals did come in and two of those children were enrolled and are now being served by the CST program,

Alicia has been reaching out to the community to get information regarding the CST program available for those who may be interested. CST is also starting to work with the local school district as support for ACEs (Adverse Childhood Experience) training.

Children's Community Options Program(CCOP) Enrollment Status:

58 children and families are being served as of this meeting.

Wraparound Principal: Family Voice and Choice Discussion:

Discussion was held regarding what incoming and established members of the committee would like to see come out of this committee in the future.

Amanda Miller stated that they had a choice in the programs that they were enrolled in and used. Amanda stated that she never had a concern that her voice is not being heard or services are not being met.

Marjorie Fillyaw stated she had a child that had emotional concerns. She felt supported in the program and wants to be an advocate for other families. She expressed that it can be tough to navigate and support is greatly appreciated. Marjorie shared the struggles her child had been through and wants to be able to help support others who may encounter similar struggles.

Sue Sharp wants to ensure that the fears and concerns that families might have are being listened to and handled in a way that helps families understand.

Angela Tjaden would have liked more information and resources readily available for programs such as the CST program. She expressed there needs to be more information available to help families know of these types of programs out there and how they can benefit families. She stated that she had difficulty finding services that her child could get into prior to moving to Wisconsin.

Briana Turk left at 12:59 pm
