Citizen Comments:

End of the Year Enrollment Updates: Myranda Culver stated we are ending the year on a good note. The Behavioral Health Unit is getting caught up on paper work. The unit still has a small to be served list for children and a larger list for adults. It is anticipated that these lists will be coming down soon. Myranda goes to explain that all children in the CCS program are dually enrolled in the CST programs. To end the year, there are currently 31 children enrolled in both CCS and CST and 27 adults. Of those there are 30 males and 28 females with a total of 58 program participants. The program continues to grow.

The Dark Matter of Love Documentary Review: Documentary presented to group. Therapist Nichole Millren, who was a part of of this project, has done a training for the Behavioral Health Unit in November. Myranda Culver explained our goal as a agency is become trauma informed and how it impacts people is the emphasis of the documentary.
