

CODE OF ETHICS

(Cr. Ord. #171-2013; Rep. & recr. Ord. #193-2015)

4.55 DECLARATION OF POLICY. (Rep. & recr. Ord. #193-2015)

To ensure that the public can have complete confidence in the integrity of Crawford County Government, each elected official and employee shall respect and adhere to the fundamental principles of ethical service. The proper operation of County government demands that:

- (1) Crawford County officials and employees be independent, impartial and responsible to the people;
- (2) Decisions be made in the proper channels of the County governmental structure;
- (3) County offices should not be used for personal gain;
- (4) County business should be conducted in such a way so as to re-enforce the public's confidence in its integrity.

4.56 PURPOSE. (Rep. & recr. Ord. #193-2015)

The purpose of this code is to establish ethical standards of conduct for all County officials and employees by identifying those acts or actions that are not compatible with the best interest of the County. Because representatives of the County are drawn from society, they cannot and should not be without all personal and economic interest in the decisions and policies of government. Citizens who serve as County officials and employees retain their rights as citizens to personal and economic interests. Therefore, the standards of ethical conduct for County officials and employees must distinguish between minor and inconsequential conflicts which are unavoidable and those conflicts which are substantial and material. The provisions of this code, and such rules and regulations which may be established, are to be interpreted in the context of the above principles and are deemed to be in the best interest of the public.

4.57 RESPONSIBILITY OF PUBLIC OFFICE. (Rep. & recr. Ord. #193-2015)

Public officials and employees are agents of the public and hold office for the benefit of the public. They are bound to uphold the Constitution of the United States and the constitution of this State and carry out impartially the laws of the nation, State and County and to observe in their official acts the highest standards of morality and to discharge faithfully the duties of their office regardless of personal considerations, recognizing that the public interest must be their prime concern. Their conduct should be above reproach so as to foster respect for all government.

4.58 DEDICATED SERVICE. (Rep. & recr. Ord. #193-2015)

Officials and employees shall adhere to the rules of work and performance established as the standard for their positions by the appropriate authority. Officials and employees shall not exceed their authority or breach the law or ask others to do so, and they shall work in full cooperation with other public officials and employees unless prohibited from so doing by law or by officially recognized confidentiality of their work.

4.59 COVERAGE. (Rep. & recr. Ord. #193-2015)

This code governs all County officials, whether elected or appointed, paid or unpaid, including members of boards, committees and commissions, department heads, and all other County employees.

4.60 EXEMPTIONS. (Rep. & recr. Ord. #193-2015)

Political contributions which are reported under Ch. 11, Wis. Stats., are exempt from the provisions of this code.
