

ORDINANCE NO. 06-28

An Ordinance Establishing A Code Of Ethics For County Employees And Creating An Ethics Board.

The Richland County Board of Supervisors does ordain as follows:

1. The authority for this Ordinance is Wisconsin Statutes, sections 19.59 (1m) through (6).
2. As used in this Ordinance, "County employee" means any County employee, unionized or non-unionized, who works either full-time for the County, one-half time for the County or who is eligible for the State of Wisconsin's retirement program and who is also eligible to participate in the County's group health insurance program, excluding the following positions which are subject to the ethics regulations set forth in Wisconsin Statutes, sections 19.59 (a) through (d):
 - (a) County Board Supervisors;
 - (b) All other elected County officials;
 - (c) The County Highway Commissioner;
 - (d) The Corporation Counsel.
3. No County employee shall:
 - (a) Use or attempt to use his or her position to secure any preferential or unlawful rights or advantages for himself or herself or others.
 - (b) Have a financial or other personal interest which is in conflict with the proper discharge of his or her duties.
 - (c) Disclose or use confidential information concerning Richland County to promote a private financial interest.
 - (d) Accept any substantial gift, in any form, from a person who has business dealings with Richland County.
4. The section of the Committee Structure Resolution under the heading "ETHICS COMMITTEE" is amended to read as follows:

"ETHICS BOARD"

 - A. 5 members
 - B. Members shall be County Board Supervisors nominated by the Committee on Committees and appointed by the County Board Chair subject to approval by the County Board.
 - C. Duties and procedures are as set forth in An Ordinance Establishing A Code of Ethics For County Employees And Creating An Ethics Board which was adopted by the County Board at its October 31, 2006 session.
5. The Ethics Board shall have the following powers and duties:
 - (a) Receive, review and investigate complaints regarding alleged violations of this Ordinance. The Board may conduct hearings.
 - (b) Decide, after hearing, whether the Ordinance has been violated and determine the penalty for the violation or violations.
 - (c) Issue advisory opinions, with the assistance of the Corporation Counsel. The identity of the requestor for an advisory opinion shall not be made public without the consent of the requestor nor shall an advisory opinion be made public without the consent of the requestor. However, a summary of an advisory opinion which does not disclose the identity of the individuals involved in the opinion may be made public.
6. Penalties for violations of this Ordinance, which shall be determined by the Ethics Board, include:
 - (a) Withholding of the payment of salary or expenses from the violator, and/or
 - (b) A forfeiture of not less than $100.00 or more than $1,000.00 for each violation of the Ordinance, plus Court costs.
7. Violations of this Ordinance shall be prosecuted by the Corporation Counsel at the direction of the Ethics Board.
8. The following procedures are hereby established for the operation of the Ethics Board:
 - (a) All complaints of the ethics violations must be in writing and must contain the following information:
 - i. The name of the alleged offender;
 - ii. The approximate date of the alleged offense, if applicable;
 - iii. The nature of the alleged offense;
 - iv. Any supporting facts known to the complaining party;
 - v. The date on which the complaint is being submitted.

- (b) While persons filing complaints of ethics violations are encouraged to identify themselves in the complaint, anonymous complaints will be accepted.
 - (c) Complaints shall be filed with or mailed to the County Clerk, who shall send copies of the complaint to the Ethics Board within 5 days of receiving the complaint.
 - (d) The County Clerk shall make copies of the County's ethics complaint form available to all Department heads; the County Clerk shall distribute a copy of the form as well as a copy of this Ordinance and a copy of the Handbook Personnel Policies to each new County employee whose position is covered by the Handbook, as well as to any other County employee who requests a copy of the ethics complaint form.
 - (e) The County's ethics complaint form is only suggested and ethics complaints which comply with this Ordinance but which are not on the form shall still be considered by the Ethics Board.
 - (f) After a complaint has been received by the Ethics Board, the Board shall:
 - i. Hold its first meeting on the complaint not later than 30 days from its receipt of the complaint; this first meeting shall be a closed session with the Corporation Counsel; the Board shall then decide whether to investigate the complaint further or drop the matter;
 - ii. If the Board decides to investigate the complaint further, it shall hear from the alleged violator; this hearing shall be in compliance with the requirements of the Open Meetings Law.
 - iii. If, after having investigated the matter and having heard from the alleged violator, the Ethics Board shall decide if this Ordinance has been violated and the appropriate penalty to assess against the violator or violators. The matter shall then be referred to the Corporation Counsel for prosecution, if necessary. In appropriate cases, the Board shall report possible violations of the criminal law to the District Attorney.
 - (g) Nothing in these procedures shall prevent the Ethics Board from investigating a possible violation of this Ordinance by a motion made by a member of the Board and adopted by the Ethics Board.
9. Resolution No. 82-105, which was adopted by the County Board on December 14, 1982 and Resolution No. 88-70, which was adopted by the County Board on September 27, 1988, are hereby repealed.
10. This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect immediately upon its passage and publication.
